Hi,

Our call on Tuesday, to include RTC approaches and strategy discussion, may either need to be postponed or I will need to call from home.

For now the Governor has ordered all State offices closed tomorrow, and I would be surprised if they are open Tuesday either. Major storm and flooding impacts will continue to threaten the region on Tuesday, probably even more so than today and tomorrow.

Also, I have completed my general approach/strategy for the RTC table for all comments, but I'm waiting on Greg and Jeff to give me feedback before sending them on to you.

I'm okay with calling in from here if everyone else can still participate.

Let me know what you would like to do.

Thanks,
Jeryl
